Collaboration with Government

- The Government is to be ideally held responsible for the legal and constitutional matters. Now whether the Indian Government can be held responsible for the same is a question. Who, then, should take care of the concerns that arise out of compassion and social responsibilities? Compassion triggers actions which, usually, are beyond constitutional matters but the good news is that the constitution does pay due respect to them and aids them within its own vista.

- It is the responsibility of every citizen to do some social service. CHILDLINE is the voice of India. A voice portal that enables ordinary citizens to report and discuss issues of local interest. To take help from CHILDLINE, a person just has to dial 1098 from any mobile. It is a toll free number.

- Government without our efforts cannot reach up to the goals set and same goes for us without Government Bodies we cannot reach up to the target set. We devise innovative strategies, customized for each issue in these country witnesses, to engage Youth participation rather than just documentation we do conventional outreach. We are engaged in partnerships, develop grassroots actions, audit the impact and share lessons with all the stakeholders to direct further actions, train leaders and use media, art, culture and technology to reach mass audiences. The innovative strategies we have come up with seem promises.

- We together works on Awareness building on violence, health, education, development, help for aged and other issues critical for women’s individual and collective empowerment.

- There is a need to develop the broader understanding of Women’s health through physical, social and political environment and to initiate interventions that enables and empower them to control these factors. We conduct Awareness drives, working with Adolescent girls to enhance their self-confidence, sensitize women to address their unequal and exploitative arrangements and relationships, research and document issues critical to women’s health and build a consensus to get the Police.

- We give our 100% to solve each and every case with our full efforts with help of Government Bodies, individuals and any other person concerned to the case.

Current Situation of Children In India

Not every child is born blessed with a safe and happy childhood. Statistic show that in our country alone, There are over 20 million children who like without parent care, either because they were abandoned or because they are orphaned or because they were separated from their families due to other inevitable circumstances. These children need immediate care and protection but the ground reality is that only a tiny fraction. A countless number of children go missing every year. The category of missing children include a number of problems including abduction or kidnapping of children by family members and by non-family members, run-away children or those who are forced to run away by family and surrounding circumstances, children who are in a difficult or aggressive environment, trafficked children, and lost children. Because of this wide array of problems it is hard to survey the number of missing children. Often cases are not reported to the police. As, many people don’t know about it that they can also complaint. Children who go missing are either exploited or abused for various purposes.

Issues related to children in India are Abuse and Violence, Trafficking, Child labour, Conflict with law, Child marriage, Child sexual abuse, without parental care, Street children, Birth, registration, armed conflicts, Disability, Drug abuse, Girl child, HIV-AIDS, Missing children etc. A child can be abused in many forms: Physically, Emotionally, Sexually, Neglecting, and Exploitation. Any of these, that potentially or actually harmful to a child’s health, survival, dignity and development are a serious abuse.

In these cases, it is necessary to help children and that is why CHILDLINE is made. It is a 24 hours service. Whenever, there is any type of need regarding children welfare, anyone can call 1098 for help. It is a toll-free number.

Nanhi Chopals in Ambala villages to motivate kids

The Zila Yuva Vikas Sangathan, an NGO, is forming Nanhi Chopals in villages of Ambala in order to make children confident and aware about their rights and duties.

The NGO has been running many projects, including the childline, since 2011. The childline is a project of the Ministry of Women and Child Development.

A Nanhi Chopal comprising 50 children from Class VI to XII has been formed in Sonda village. Simmi, a girl student, is its sarpanch and there are five panches, including a boy. The team of sarpanch and panches will charge every three months so that all children get a chance to show their skills.

The first chopal was formed on January 3 and its meeting is held every Sunday.

The NGO motivates children to come forward and share their problems with the sarpanch and the panch. The childline also provides relevant information to the children and will further discuss their issues with the childline.

The NGO has set a target of forming 50 chopals in Ambala in the first phase.

Dr Pratibha Singh, Director, Childline Ambala, who started the Nanhi Chopal programme, says, "We get numerous calls for help on the hotline. Children, who are aware, tell their problems but there are a large number of them who are not so aware and do not tell about their problems. Besides, during visits to schools it was observed that children were not aware about a good touch and a bad touch, and many of them, facing other issues were hesitating from telling their problems."

"During a visit to a school, we taught children about a good touch and a bad touch. Meanwhile, a minor girl told us that a person had been touching her inappropriately for sometime but she did not know whether it was right or wrong. She had never informed anyone about it. After the seminar, she informed her family about it..."

"So, we decided to run the Nanhi Chopal programmes in each village, focusing on their issues and motivate other children also," she adds.

"Children will hold a meeting every Sunday in which they will share their ideas and issues. They are given a topic to express their views. They are asked about the sanitary conditions in their villages, other local issues and the problems they have been facing at their schools, homes or localities," she says.

The NGO plans to run a 'Sanskarkala' along with the Nanhi Chopal project to also teach children about the Indian culture. The children are being taught about the work done by various departments — judiciary, Vidhan Sabha and the Lok Sabha.

Soon, boards having the contact details of various departments will be installed so that children can use them in case of an emergency or other problems.

Pratibha says, "Village children do not get much exposure. The project will help them to express their views. Soon, we will try to link these children with the sarpanches and panches of their villages and municipal councillors in the area so that they can get some help and guidance."

Another Nanhi Chopal will be formed in Malhampura village soon. An NGO in Alipur village has shown interest in setting up a chopal."
ENLIGHT LIFE OF KIDS IN NEED

“EDUCATION IS THE MOST IMPORTANT WEAPON THAT CAN CHANGE THE WORLD”
EDUCATION

Nelson Mandela said that education is the most powerful weapon which one can use to change the world. Nothing can be more concrete than this statement.

No matter how much we want to bring about a change in the society. We will not be successful until we concentrate on educating young children and preparing our youth for empowerment in our country. The current statistics indicate that the number of students who do not complete schooling still lies in millions. In recent years, while it is heartening to know that the gender gap is closing in for primary education, the number of girl’s dropouts in secondary education is still very high.

Consider the following figures:-

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>85%</th>
<th>1 in 6</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Of girls who complete class 10th</td>
<td>girls are married under the age of 18, according to the census 2011</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Fail to complete class 12th due to Financial constraints.</td>
<td>Figures for recent marriage.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

There are more such figures and statistics that will completely change your perspective regarding what the reality is and how young children actually suffer all their lives because of lack of education. For us, it is one of the top priorities and so we run two programmes that helping children complete their education.

Education is the most important tool that we can equip our students with, education is the movement from darkness to light.

“THERE ARE TWO EDUCATIONS. ONE SHOULD TEACH US. HOW TO MAKE A LIVING THE OTHERS, HOW TO LIVE”

ABOUT THE PROGRAMME
Recognizing and nurturing excellence in needy students and facilitating their overall growth.

The mission of Enlight Life of Kids in Need, Canada is to bring education to underprivileged children wherever in the world there is need and wherever they can help. They do not discriminate based on faith, ethnicity or gender. Enlight sees every child as their responsibility. Education creates a positive ripple effect that improves individuals, villages and countries where it can be accessed. To make children educated and increase the literacy rate, Enlight Life of Kids in Need, Canada joined their hands with Zila Yuva Vikas Sanghthan to implement a core program for child care, protection and education since 27th May, 2017. In which Zila Yuva Vikas Sanghthan adopted 68 children of Class 9th, 10th, 10+1 & 10+2 who were in need and wanted to study. The educational expenses of those children are paid by ZYVS itself. The motive of joining hands was cleared; they wanted to increase the level of education in the untouched areas and to reach the children who want to study but because of some circumstances they are unable to study and successfully reached those children and helped them in every possible way.

ZYVS adopted 68 children who are:

- Financially not sound
- Needy ones
- Fatherless children
- Intelligent children
- Ambitious
- Family in crisis

Those children who are needy and want to study but because of some issues they are unable to study and this unknowingly ruins their present and future. Zila Yuva Vikas Sanghthan took the initiative with the support of Enlight Life of Kids in Need, Canada and adopted 68 children to help and educate them and make them efficient enough to live their life. In this we provide education related things to the children which includes books, stationery, uniform and fees. So that children can study and learn more.

USHA SILAI CENTRE
STATUS OF WOMEN IN INDIA

In India society, women are traditionally discriminated against and excluded from political and family related decisions. Despite the large amount of work women must do on a daily basis support their families, their opinions are rarely acknowledged and their rights are limited. All the females in a household have the responsibility of the house work. So even through education does not financial burden the family, it costs them the time she spends at school when she could be doing chores. In addition, even if a woman is educated, especially in the poorer regions, there is no hope for jobs. Most jobs woman perform are agricultural or domestic which do not require a formal education. Another reason girls are not educated is because families are not required to supply a chaste daughter to the family of her future husband.

Because women are not educated and cannot hold a prestigious job, they take on the most physically difficult and undesirable jobs.

This scenario is slowly changing in recent years. We can see a slow and steady rise of women in all fields of importance. Women of today are not just restricted to cooking and taking care of their households, they have stepped out of their comfort zones to create their own images in the outside as well. This in short, can be termed as Women Empowerment. Society has now changed its stand and the way its look at women, due to the progress achieved by women in all spheres of life.

Atrocities against women

Through women have achieved success in various sphere of life, the dark areas of humanism do exit even in modern days. We get to hear plenty of cases of rapes, mental and physical harassments, dowry deaths, cases of domestic, violence etc. This news fills our daily newspapers and is very important part of the ugly truth of mankind. Women today are definitely empowered with self confidence and boldness to carry on the world without fear, yet in terms of women safety, these are still lots to be achieved. Crime against women is definitely on the rise. Many women fear to go out of their houses after sunset. They fear their own safety. Women are also prone to plenty of incidents of chain snatching, molestation, eve teasing etc. such incidents morally bring down the courage of women and leave them wanting for help and support from the male members of the family.

Women Empowerment

Women’s day is celebrated, not to glorify the beauty and grace of women, but to bring about awareness among the public regarding women’s safety. Women needs to strengths themselves by building up their inner strengths and face the world without fear.

We should empower the women in our lived to lead independent lives. They should take independent decisions regarding their careers, professions, choice etc. They should be taught to be self reliant and should not depend on anyone to meet their financial needs; they should be taught to handle their own expenses.

THERE IS NO TOOL FOR DEVELOPMENT MORE EFFECTIVE THAN THE EMPOWERMENT OF WOMEN

-Kofi Annan
ABOUT THE PROGRAMME

Usha Silai Center was started in 2012 in Ambala to benefit the women and girls to make them Independent. USHA Silai School means a school of teaching girls and women in the village to sew, and this school is operated and managed by Women Entrepreneur using an USHA sewing machine. In this, proper training is given to the learners related to stitching, cutting and drafting of clothes to make them wearable. From this, they can earn some money to fulfill their needs. After the training, they are given an Experience Certificate and further they can teach to the other students at their own house. And this training is given at the centre of the District so that it will be convenient for everyone. In one year, 10 centers are established in 1 District and each Center consists of 10 students who can teach stitching after their training to the nearby girls and women. A total of 40 centers are established in one year in Haryana. The woman in turn would have to in teach at least 20 students span of 1 year. ZYVS has set up 316 schools in Distt, Ambala, Kurukshetra, Kaithal, Yamuna Nagar, Panipat and Panchkula with support from USHA in past five years. We had operated 326 USHA Silai Schools benefiting over 7200 women/girls in rural areas. The reason behind opening of Usha Silai Center was to make women and girls independent enough to earn their living. Most of the Women in India are not independent at all because they lack in studies, self confidence, social pressure, surroundings, and many more reasons like this.

This centre was set up with the objective to train girls and women from underprivileged backgrounds in vocational trained women from our centers and encouraged to make empower, which in turn helps them, gain financial Empowerment.

PROGRAMME OBJECTIVES

Ascending to financial independence whilst we wish the centre to become economically sustainable, we consider the measure of success to be the number of women who have been able to move from a ‘hand to mouth’ existence to one of self-reliance thus enabling them to provide for their families.

- Teaching employable skills to girls and women from disadvantaged backgrounds.
- Leading them to financial independence.
- Women with Confident personalities.

NEVER RESTRICT A WOMEN; SHE CAN DO EVERYTHING LIKE A MAN
